UPCOMING CLASSES

Offered at the Gallery:

PROMOTING, MARKETING AND SELLING YOUR ART

Learn how to promote, market and sell your art! This 5 week course is designed for artists who desire a greater understanding of the contemporary art marketplace and how their artwork fits into this market. Topics will include information on preparing an artist's statement and biography, promotional materials, websites, contacting galleries, direct selling, networking, pricing and building positive relationships with art dealers and collectors. The course will be taught by Ms. Marilyn Mylrea, a professional artist and gallery owner for the past two years. Ms. Mylrea is also a professional teacher and art dealer. She has a B.F.A. in Studio art, a degree in Art History and a degree in Art Education. If you are interested in this course, the next session will be starting in May (please see below).
